

An Cumann le Léann Ceanadach in Éirinn
Association of Canadian Studies in Ireland
Association irlandaise d'études canadiennes

Association for Canadian Studies in Ireland (ACSI)

19th Biennial Conference

CALL FOR PAPERS

Canadian Re-Generation(s)

Waterford Institute of Technology, 26th-28th April 2018

This conference aims to examine the theme of re-generation(s) in relation to Canada (past, present and future) from a wide range of interdisciplinary perspectives.

Papers are invited on, but not limited to, the following topics

- Re-writing Canada
- Re-imagining Canada
- Re-invigorating Canada
- Re-mapping Canada
- Re-telling Canada
- Resisting Canada
- Re-visualising Canada
- Re-designing Canadian Education
- Re-framing Canadian socioeconomic structures
- Canadian Peoples
- Evolving Language in Canada
- Immigration
- Family structures
- Canada and the Digital Age
- Waves/Movements in Canadian History
- Canada and the Global Context

Please send abstracts of no more than 300 words, along with a brief biography (50 words) to acsi1982secretary@gmail.com

We welcome submissions in French or English and we also welcome comparative approaches, especially in the domain of Irish-Canadian relations.
The deadline for proposals is Friday 12th January 2018

Organising Committee:

Dr Julie Rodgers, ACSI President

Dr Riana O'Dwyer, ACSI Secretary

Mr John Maher, ACSI Treasurer

Dr Richard Hayes, ACSI Executive Committee

Please address any general queries to Julie.rodgers@mu.ie or jmaher@wit.ie

---